Dow Official Named President Of Harbor Area Welfare Group

Alex Bero, industrial relations supervisor for the Dow Chemical Company, and prominent resident of the area, was elected yesterday new president of the Harbor Area Board of the Welfare Federation of Los Angeles Area.

Bero replaces Dean Sears of Torrance as board chairman. Also elected were Ed Patterson of San Pedro, first vice-president; and Jack Dabbs, of Torrance, second vice-chairman. Bero, who lives at 3210 W. 159th St., has been active in Community Chest work for several years. He also serves as vice chairman of the Garden Chapter of Red Cross and is a member-at-large of Los Angeles Council of Boy Scouts. He is on the board of directors of both El Camino College and Harbor Junior College.

Board Named
At the same time, the Area Board named its members-at-large for two-year terms. They are Bert M. Lynn, W. C. Bullock, Frank R. Elliott, Ira D. Kaye, Rev. Cecil J. England, Mrs. J. J. Millard, and Mrs. Bernice Murphy.

Named as community members to serve locally and on the over-all 285-member board of the Welfare Federation of Los Angeles Area are Mrs. Donald Armstrong, Robert G. Yetter, James L. Decker, and Frode Kilstofte who was re-elected.

Manager Speaks
Lynn D. Mowat, general manager of the Welfare Federation of Los Angeles Area, mother organization of the Community Chest, spoke on the Federation's functions in fund-raising, social planning, and budgeting of health and welfare agencies for maximum service and minimum cost to the community.

Harbor Area Board is responsible for informing itself of health and welfare needs of the cities and towns it represents. Through its appointed representatives it passes this information on to the general executive committee of the Welfare Federation. The Board is also responsible for selection of volunteer leaders in the annual Community Chest campaign.

Local Women Win Public Health Service Awards

Awards for 500 hours of voluntary public health service were given Thursday to two Torrance women by Supervisor Burton W. Chace at the annual meeting of the Citizens Advisory committee of the County Health department, held at the Rancho Golf Club.

The two women, Mrs. Louise Weiss and Mrs. Charlotte Chandler, received the awards for work they did in child health conferences, TB surveys, and in the health department's clinics.

Doctor Roy O. Gilbert, of the department, and Chace both emphasized the valuable contributions which women volunteers are making in the field of public health. More than 150 women from all sections of the country attended the meeting and pins and certificates were given to 34 of them who had devoted more than 100 voluntary hours to health work.

Speakers at the meeting were Doctor Robert Haas, head of the
